

Shira Renee Thomas

10337 Laramie Ave. Chatsworth, CA 91311 818-517-4101
www.shirareneethomas.com csundeevah@yahoo.com

"... a top notch soprano ... beautiful sound, so lovely and musical ... the voice big and rich"

- Carol Vaness

Shira Renee Thomas recently made her triumphant debut with Townsend Opera Players in Modesto, CA as Juliet in Gounod's Romeo and Juliet, where critics praised her "vibrant portrayal" and "vocal fireworks". In 2010 she made her East Coast debut, thrilling enthusiastic audiences as Gilda in Verdi's Rigoletto with Opera Company of the Highlands in New York. The 2011-2012 Season will see Thomas return to Townsend Opera Players for Opera Remix, a unique concert of opera arias and classic rock. In addition, she will perform Rosina in Il barbiere di Siviglia and Pamina in Die Zauberflöte with Center Stage Opera in Canoga Park, CA where she is resident soprano.

In June 2011, Ms. Thomas created the role of Marie in the world premiere of Marie's Orchard with Center Stage Opera (CA). She was highlighted in an LA Times feature on the premiere, and she received high accolades for her stunning vocal interpretation, as well as her moving character portrayal. Marie's Orchard is a brand new opera by composer Philip Westin and librettist Dylan F. Thomas inspired by Willa Cather's novel, O Pioneers! In April 2008, Ms. Thomas sang the role of Marie in segments from a previous version of the story, entitled Heartland, for an invited audience of ASCAP heavyweights, including Stephen Schwartz and Eric Whitacre, both of whom have continued to follow the progress of the revised opera. The role of Marie in the original score was tailored specifically for Ms. Thomas, and the role in the re-envisioned work, Marie's Orchard, has been written entirely for her.

Thomas has delighted audiences in many diverse leading roles including Marguerite in Faust, Gilda in Rigoletto, Juliette in Roméo et Juliette, Violetta in La traviata, Lucia in Lucia di Lammermoor, Adina in L'elisir d'amore, Micaela in Carmen, Fiordiligi in Costi fan tutte, Fanny in Rossini's La Cambiale di matrimonio, Adele in Die Fledermaus, Susanna in Le nozze di Figaro, Papagena in The Magic Flute, and the dual characters Isabelle/Madeline in The Face on the Barroom Floor (Mollicone). Ms. Thomas also debuted the character of Pieta in the world premiere, staged version of Eric Whitacre's groundbreaking work, Paradise Lost - Opera Electronica.

Ms. Thomas portrayed the role of Mrs. Hayes in Floyd's Susannah, and covered soprano Nicole Cabell in the role of Pamina in Die Zauberflöte at Opera Pacific in Orange County, CA. As a resident artist of that company, Thomas was a featured soloist in numerous events, including "Opera in the Park" and "Opera Under the Stars". She also performed the role of Pamina in the Pacific Symphony's Family Musical Mornings presentation of The Magic Flute at Segerstrom Concert Hall in Costa Mesa, CA.

Thomas was a Festival Artist with the Utah Festival Opera Company in 2009, where she was a soloist on two different orchestra concerts, singing "Deh vieni non tardar" from Le nozze di Figaro, as well as "June is Busting Out All Over" from Carousel, both with the UFOC orchestra conducted by Maestro Barbara Day Turner. In addition, she covered the roles of Micaela in Carmen and Yum-Yum in The Mikado, and was chosen as a finalist in the Concorso Lirico International Opera Competition

Metropolitan Opera soprano Carol Vaness states that "(Thomas') rendition of the Poison Aria from Romeo et Juliette is incredibly moving, as she can sing it beautifully with incredible passion and commitment." As Adina in L'elisir d'amore, critics stated that Thomas "dominates the story, the stage, and all the music of the work". The Press Enterprise noted her "...perfect intonation, elegant control, and artistic phrasing", in a performance of arias and duets with the Riverside Philharmonic. As Juliette, Ms. Thomas was reviewed as being "...a wonder of dramatic and lyric intensity."

Among the numerous awards and scholarships earned by Ms. Thomas, she was awarded 1st prize in the prestigious Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod Vocal Solo Competition in North Wales. The Musical Eisteddfod has hosted such competitors as Luciano Pavarotti and Bryn Terfel in past years.